

Day 99, Wednesday February 17, 2021 Asynchronous Learning Day

Important Dates:

Wednesday, February 17-Asynchronous Learning Day

Important Information:

There will be an informational meeting for any 7-12th grade girls interested in being on the Fusion Softball team in the cafeteria tomorrow at 2:50.

Students in extracurricular activities for grades 6-12 will need to zero out their detention hours by Friday @4:00 PM to be able to participate in their next event.

Basketball game schedules are available in the HS office. As a reminder, all game schedules are tentative. February practice schedules are in the office as well.

Reminder to students: When you are outside the building whether that is for lunch, the end of the day, the end of practice, etc. It is winter time, please dress appropriately for the weather.

Wednesdays will be considered Asynchronous Learning days. Students will not attend school in person on Wednesdays until further notice. Meals will be available for pickup on Tuesdays at 3:00 for Asynchronous Learning days. Please check your Google Classroom and Schoology platforms for more information regarding Asynchronous Learning days. Students are to check in with their 1st hour teacher by 9a each Wednesday.

There are extra 2019-2020 yearbooks for sale in the High School office. The price is $60.

Attention WAO Students: Please show your school pride this school year and wear Pony or Fusion gear on Fridays!!!
